

As a travelling man I enjoy the ease of listening to my music and talk without the search. I guess the large radio stations are putting up the same fight the networks tried with TV Cable.
How'd that turn out.